

Bio for Mark Broome

Mark Broome was born in Delta, Colorado where he graduated from Delta High School. After graduation he joined the US Navy and served as MMS(SS) on two nuclear fast track submarines. He maintained high mechanical readiness on the submarines. In returned to Delta, his hometown, in February of 1993. Mark then pursued various careers in construction, oil fields and truck driving. Currently he is the owner/founder of Mark's Victory Plumbing, LLC and has as 23 years of experience in the plumbing industry. Mark is married to Leona. He has two daughter and three grandchildren.

Mark states it is an honor to serve as Councilmember At-Large for the City of Delta. He believes that with the help of our good citizens, we can change Delta to be more innovative and prosperous. He encourages all to use common sense, future planning, work hard and most of all fully rely on the Lord God All Mighty.